Nike's Nike Sportswear, Flow, introduced its first light running shoe, Air. In 1982, the success of Nike Air Force 1 made Bruce Kilgore one of the best young designers of the brand. His design is known for its functionality, and Kilgore's design, materials and manufacturing processes were revolutionary at that time. Air Flow, launched in 1989, was also designed by Kilgore. He solved the urgent need of the player at that time: a breathable sports shoes without losing the comfortable comfort and good cushioning. He therefore consists of a plush toy bear inspired Kilgore the use of new lightweight fabric in the upper, and a novel bending groove and the bottom cushion sole combination, become a design concept of human body engineering in the early. Air Flow's minimalist breathability and aerodynamic design of the upper structure has been affecting the subsequent design of Nike running shoes, including Huarache, Presto and Free. The Nike re introduced green / Purple / White / Green / Black / blue two first year color matching, is expected to be listed in June. This is also the first replica of the shoes, like the running shoes of friends can not miss.
